6/20/08 MOTION FOR FULL COURT RECONSIDERATION OF 6/13/08 ORDER

COMES NOW Pro Se Appellant, DAVID HAEG, in the above referenced case & hereby requests a full court reconsideration of this courts 6/13/08 order.

On 5/31/08 Haeg filed a motion to reschedule oral argument to October and to increase the time for oral argument from 15 minutes to 30 minutes per side.

On 6/6/08 Appellee Cole opposed the increase in time – arguing Haeg had not raised any significant factual or legal issues that would require increased time.

On 6/13/08 this court ordered arguments would be 15 minutes per side.

The factual & legal issues Haeg has raised should be of great significance to this court and to Alaska. The U.S. Department of Justice has stated the issues Haeg raised are of great significance to them.

At issue is that Cole utilized his fiduciary position as Haeg’s attorney to lie to and mislead Haeg so the State could unjustly & unconstitutionally prosecute Haeg and to frame Haeg for guiding violations. Of even more significance is that Cole then perjured himself to the Alaska Bar Association Fee Arbitration panel to cover up the sellout and conspired with attorney Kevin Fitzgerald (who also perjured himself to the panel) to do so. A complete collapse of the adversarial system our country depends on to produce just results has occurred.

These far reaching issues cannot be adequately addressed in 15 minutes of oral argument – and if they are not adequately addressed will continue to grow and consume more & more of Alaska’s judicial system.

Because of the above, Haeg respectfully asks the full court for an additional 15 minutes time in which to present the issues that have already destroyed 4-1/2 years his family’s life.

This motion is supported by the accompanying affidavit of appellant and a May 18, 2008 Anchorage Daily News article.
