 Trial Court Case #3KN-06-844 CI

MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT THE RECORD

COMES NOW Pro Se Appellant, DAVID HAEG, in the above referenced case and, in accordance with this Supreme Court’s Opening Notice dated 6/29/07, hereby asks this court to supplement the record in this case. Documents and proceedings Haeg wishes to supplement the record with include the documents and recordings the Fee Arbitration panel refused to accept (tapes and transcriptions of Chuck Robinson, tape and transcription of Haeg’s sentencing, and copies of pertinent caselaw – Cole was allowed to speak of his hearsay conversations with Robinson but Haeg was not allowed to rebut this with actual taped conversations with Robinson). Haeg would also like to supplement the record with the documents and proceedings in his criminal case including Haeg’s motion for return of property and to suppress as evidence. These proceedings contain evidence directly relating to the Fee Arbitration and this appeal, are a direct result of Cole’s actions that are complained of, and are needed for a just determination of this case. As an appendix Haeg is including the pertinent caselaw, transcriptions of Robinson, the briefs filed in his motion for return of property and to suppress as evidence and the briefs filed in his criminal appeal.

This motion is supported by the included appendix and affidavit of appellant.
