Trial Court Case # 4MC-04-00024CR

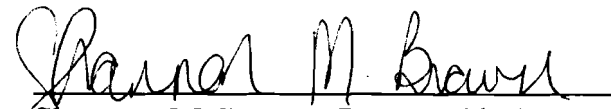

On September 20, 2007, Haeg filed a designation of portions of the electronic record that he believes are necessary for the proper resolution of this appeal. The State has moved to strike Haeg's designation in its entirety, or in the alternative, portions of it. Haeg opposes the State's motion. After a review of these pleadings, Haeg's opening brief, and his requested designation,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Haeg's designation of proceedings conducted in this case is accepted. However, except as noted below, none of the designated proceedings will be transcribed at public expense. Instead, the Court will rely on the audio files of these proceedings. This Court has already accepted the designation of the trial and the sentencing proceedings; these proceedings will be transcribed at public expense.

Entered by direction of Chief Judge Coats.

Clerk of the Appellate Courts
