MOTION FOR EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION

COMES NOW, DAVID HAEG, in the above search warrant, and hereby files the following motion for expedited consideration in accordance with Ak Rule of Criminal Procedure No. 42(i) Expedited Consideration:

"A party may move for expedited consideration of its principal motion by filing a second motion requesting relief in less time than would normally be required for the court to issue a decision."

Haeg and his family have been illegally deprived of their property that is used to provide virtually the only livelihood they have for almost 2-1/2 years. Haeg has made arrangements to drive to Anchorage to obtain his property on November 17, 2006 and Haeg needs an order in his hand before November 16, 2006 or delivered to the Evidence Custodian of the Alaska State Troopers at 5700 E. Tudor Road, Anchorage, AK 99507-1225, phone (907) 269-5761, returning his property and suppress evidence.

A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court in the judicial district in which the property was seized or the court in which the property may be used for the return of the property and to suppress for use as evidence anything so obtained on the ground that the property was illegally seized." Much of Haeg's property was seized from Browns Lake which is just south of Sterling Alaska which is in the 3rd Judicial District.

For every hour that Haeg's family and he are being illegally deprived of their property, which is used to provide for the livelihood of Haeg's family, Haeg and his family are being grievously harmed.

Again, Haeg needs an order in his hand before November 16, 2006 or delivered to the Evidence Custodian of the Alaska State Troopers at 5700 E. Tudor Road, Anchorage, AK 99507-1225 by 1:00 p.m. on November 17, 2006, phone (907) 269-5761, returning his property and suppress evidence.

I, DAVID S. HAEG, certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true to the best of my knowledge.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this ____ day of _____, 2006.
