Ms. Dizon,

We forgo and withdraw our request that you commit to a second meeting, so we may proceed with the meeting tomorrow at 1:30 PM in Anchorage, with your, Ms. Mason, and the Governor's understanding that we will renew our original request to the Governor for a meeting with him to present evidence and discuss "Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public" - since you are unable or unwilling to provide such a meeting, even though it is plainly apparent the Governor himself asked you to do so (see below email thread).

So, as it stands, we will meet with you tomorrow from 1:30 - 3 PM to discuss "the Investigative Grand Jury process including the potential formation of an independent commission to evaluate citizen-initiated complaints" - which is what you stated below you are willing to discuss.

Since you cannot provide the meeting the Governor requested you grant us, to discuss "Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public", we would appreciate you joining us in asking the Governor to meet with us for this purpose. Please let us know if you are willing to do so.

We will see you at 1:30 PM tomorrow.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

Ms. Dizon,

Thank you for finally realizing and/or admitting that the meeting you are offering ("an improved process for citizen-initiated requests") is not the meeting the Governor granted us with you ("Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public"). This should have been clear to you nearly two (2) months ago when you received my letter (attached) and this email from the Governor:

Good evening, David,

Thank you again for the request to meet with the Governor and Attorney General to discuss fixing Alaska's judicial corruption with an appointed independent commission. If you agree to a prompt second meeting (where you will discuss in detail the specific circumstances, events, evidence, and persons indicating corruption and/or requiring the appointment of an independent commission that investigates in public - including but not limited to attachments 1 thru 15 in the emails below, which you will have examined prior to meeting) we will agree to meet with you tomorrow to discuss "the investigative grand jury process" and related issues.

However, if you do not intend on going through with a meeting to discuss corruption specifics justifying appointment of an independent commission that investigates in public - or use the "grand jury process" meeting as a ruse to deny a later meeting, we respectfully decline to attend the first meeting - as we believe the second will protect the public's welfare and safety to a far greater degree. In your email below you state that before a second meeting you would need to "be clear about the discussion topic". Attachments 1 thru 15, which are already in your possession, make the topic crystal clear.

Five of us (including two Borough Mayors) have been juggling schedules for many weeks in a good-faith effort to meet with you. Please honor these sacrifices with full, fair, and honest meetings to resolve the crucial issues above. At least two of us will be leaving home at about 8 AM tomorrow to make the trip to Anchorage, so let us know before then if you decide to cancel.

Thank you again for taking the time to address our request that the Governor appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska - which is a very great danger to the public's welfare and safety.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

Dear Mr. Haeg,

Thank you for your clarification and explanation regarding what appears to be a misunderstanding regarding the meeting topic for tomorrow, February 12. Our understanding at the Department of Law was that the meeting topic for tomorrow was the Investigative Grand Jury process including the potential formation of an independent commission to evaluate citizen-initiated complaints.

Based upon your email this morning, however, it appears you are actually seeking an independent commission to consider the evidence you have compiled in support of your claims of systemic judicial corruption.

We want to make sure that you can bring your concerns to the right people and that we are prepared for the discussion.

If you would like to meet about the investigative grand jury process or the idea of an independent commission, and to provide your ideas on how we could improve things, we could still agree to meet tomorrow at 1:30 PM on that exclusive subject. However, if you are looking to discuss any other topics or get into the details of specific actions that have been taken, we would ask that the meeting set for tomorrow be rescheduled so that we can be clear about the discussion topic and ensure the meeting can be productive.

Thank you.

Ms. Dizon (Ms. Mason, we respectfully ask you to immediately give the Governor this email thread and ask he read it, prior to our February 12 meeting, so he may head off the rapidly expanding constitutional crisis,

I wrote an email at 8 AM on February 10 (below) concerning the Department of Law's repeated demand to change our meeting - from exposing judicial corruption with an independent commission to something that will not expose corruption. Ever though the corruption implicates the highest levels of the Department of Law, up to and including Deputy Attorney General John Skidmore (see below email thread that caused Deputy AG Skidmore to be removed from our meeting).

In a 9:08 AM text on February 10, Don Fritz suggested waiting to send the email - in hopes that you, Deputy Attorney General Cori Mills, and Chief Assistant Attorney General Anne Helzer would realize that our letter to the Governor - that he must appoint an independent commission to investigate judicial corruption in public - absolutely requires a discussion of the particular circumstances, events, and implicated persons that would justify such a commission. Yet your 3:37 PM email instead makes a bizarre claim: "Representatives from the Attorney General's office have agreed to meet with Mr. David Haeg for the narrow purpose of considering Mr. Haeg's ideas on an improved process for citizen-initiated requests for an investigative grand jury in Alaska." This is bizarre because the Governor himself asked you to meet with multiple Alaskans (not just David Haeg) to: "discuss fixing Alaska's judicial corruption with an appointed commission." (see below Tue, 17 Dec 2024 04:42 email from Governor) This was in direct response to our letter to the Governor titled "RE: Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public". How did "Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public" become "an improved process for citizen-initiated requests"?

We believe the Governor may be interested in finding out that you are defying his request that you meet with us to discuss our concerns in our letter to him. (see attached Governor Meeting Request) The Governor may be interested in learning the Department of Law even printed their own agenda for the meeting and are demanding we agree to it, after we had already given the Department of Law our agenda (attached) - for the meeting we requested and the Governor himself granted.

Most importantly, we believe the Alaskan public will be absolutely outraged when they read this email thread (and attachments) and realize the size of the scandal the Alaska Department of Law is now trying to cover up - and the incomprehensible harm it represents to the public welfare and safety.

After this meeting we will humbly ask that ALL Alaskans join us in demanding that the Governor (907-465-3500) himself (as originally requested) meet with our team so they can present the "particular persons, circumstances, situations, and evidence" requiring he appoint an independent commission to investigate judicial corruption in public. For the meeting the Department of Law is now providing is not the meeting the Governor granted us. In fact, the Department of Law's act of changing this meeting is, by itself, proof of why an independent commission must be appointed.

In response to your last email:

1. We will meet with Department of Law attorneys Cori Mills and Anne Helzer on February 12, 2025 from 1:30 - 3:00 PM in Anchorage at Department of Law offices.
2. Five (5) members of our team will attend and take part in the discussion. Their names are Edna DeVries (Mat-Su Borough Mayor - likely attending in person); Peter Micciche (Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor - likely attending via Zoom); Don Fritz (Funny River Board - likely attending in person); Ric Davidge (Alaska Roundtable - likely attending in person); and David Haeg (likely attending in person).
3. The "Department of Law will not consider discussion of persons, circumstances, situations or evidence presented by Mr. Haeg in support of any past or present claim of systemic corruption or judicial corruption at this meeting." (This is from the Department whose sole purpose is to prosecute crime and protect the public and which has been requested by the Governor to meet with folks who wish to present judicial corruption evidence that requires the appointment of an independent commission to investigate in public - see attachments.)
4. The meeting will be recorded and a copy given to the public, Governor, and Legislature.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.
(907) 398-6403

8 AM February 10 email, that Mr. Fritz suggested I delay sending:

Ms. Dizon,

1. Regarding your concern of not having time to review the documents we provided: pertinent parts are highlighted - which should only take about 30 minutes to review. Again, we humbly ask you to do so. Several of us are driving nearly 8 hours just to attend this meeting, so it would be fundamentally unfair for you not to be prepared.

2. Regarding your statement:

"The purpose of the February 12th meeting, as we understand it, is to hear your proposal how best to handle citizen-initiated requests for an investigative grand jury in Alaska. As for any particular persons, circumstances or situations, we do not believe it will be productive to spend time going over individual scenarios. Rather, the most productive use of the meeting will be for you to discuss your concerns about the current process, and to provide us with any suggestions you have to best serve the public. Please respond to this email letting us know that you will agree to above scope and expectations for the meeting on February 12 at 1:30 PM."

For the second time (see below email thread), this meeting is to address the issues in our November 24, 2024 letter to the Governor (attached). This letter is titled, "RE: Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public". In the Governor's email setting up our meeting, the Governor confirmed the subject of the meeting: "Thank you again for the request to meet with the Governor and Attorney General to discuss fixing Alaska's judicial corruption with an appointed commission."

For us to successfully make the case that the Governor must appoint a commission that investigates in public, we must discuss particular persons, circumstances, and situations. To bar us from doing so will almost certainly doom our mission to failure.

We clearly understand why you wish to avoid discussing particular individuals, circumstances, and situations: many involve corruption, crime, and cover-up by individuals that you work with in the Department of Law. (see attached Meeting Agenda, Reasons for Independent Commission, and Timeline for names, circumstances, and situations) In fact, you are described below as "Ninia Dizon with Mr. Skidmore's office" and this meeting was first scheduled with John Skidmore, Alaska's Deputy Attorney General. It was only our discussion of evidence that he illegally stopped a grand jury investigation into judicial corruption, and then lied to legislators to cover up what he had done (see email thread below), that caused him to be removed from our meeting. You have been placed in a very unfair situation in which you are being asked to facilitate a meeting which may result in the firing and imprisonment of your boss.

Don Fritz's email (attached below) also addresses your apparent confusion about this meeting and reinforces the need to present evidence and discuss particular persons, circumstances, and situations.

Thank you again for taking the time to address our request that the Governor appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska - which is a very great danger to the public's welfare and safety.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

My name is Don Fritz and I will be attending the meeting with you folks on February 12. I have been a part of this movement for several years and other than being a concerned citizen of Alaska, I have "no dog in the fight".

I first became aware of the corruption in our state's judicial system by carefully studying the very documents provided to you in the previous email thread. I honestly believe that in order to have a productive meeting we must first agree that there is "systemic corruption" in Alaska's judicial system, i.e. a problem. This requires that we discuss the very issues described in the documentation provided by Mr. Haeg! The evidence he has provided is only the tip of the iceberg; there are plenty more examples of what happening in our judicial system.

In your last response to Mr. Haeg, you state that you want to discuss our concerns about the current process and to provide you with any suggestions we have to best serve the public. I'm not quite sure what process we are talking about or if there is truly a process in place to correct the main issue of "systemic corruption" in Alaska's judicial system. Let's lay all the cards on table and discuss the evidence provided and get on with establishing an independent commission and what the duties, responsibilities, and authority of that commission will be.

Thanks again to the Governor and Attorney General for granting us the opportunity to meet and discuss one of the most important, (if not the most important), issues facing Alaska and potentially the "Country".

Thanks all for listening to the doddering's of an old guy.

Mr. Fritz - Thank you for taking the time to respond to our email regarding the shared expectations for our meeting on February 12, 2025.

Mr. Haeg - Deputy AG Cori Mills has asked that I send the below message.

To reiterate our expectations for the meeting that were communicated last week, Cori Mills and Anne Helzer have agreed to meet with David Haeg from 1:30-3:00PM. In that meeting, we will consider Mr. Haeg's ideas on how best to implement citizen-initiated requests for an investigative grand jury in Alaska on a matter of public welfare and safety. While we cannot guarantee that all ideas brought to our attention at this meeting will be implemented, we are also interested in learning about the potential to form an independent commission that could oversee or play some other role in citizen-initiated grand jury investigations. The discussion could also include Mr. Haeg's thoughts on what the potential duties, responsibilities, and authority of an independent commission might look like.

To be very clear, we will not discuss any persons, circumstances, situations, or topics, nor will we review evidence presented by Mr. Haeg in support of any past or present claims of systemic corruption or "judicial corruption" at this meeting.

It is imperative that we come to this meeting with alignment on the topic of discussion and who we can expect to be present. The conference room is small and can sit a maximum of 10 people in person. Accordingly, we will require a reply to this message with your assent to the scope, expectations, and number of people for this meeting, before tomorrow morning at 10:00 AM. I have attached an agenda for that purpose. If we do not hear back from you by tomorrow at 10:00AM, we will need to reschedule the meeting until we have all agreed on the scope and agenda.

Cori Mills and Anne Helzer look forward to hearing your suggestions on how we can best serve the public by listening to your suggestions, taking feedback seriously, and to making the citizen-initiated grand jury investigative as fair and equitable and accessible to citizens as possible.

Dear Mr. Haeg,

Deputy Attorney General Mills and Chief Assistant Attorney General Helzer look forward to meeting next week.

We expect our meeting to take place in person in Anchorage on February 12, 2025 from 1:30-3:00 PM.

Regarding the documents you sent, we will review everything we can. However, due to time constraints, we may not be able to complete review of your documents in advance of the meeting on February 12.

The purpose of the February 12th meeting, as we understand it, is to hear your proposal how best to handle citizen-initiated requests for an investigative grand jury in Alaska. You referenced the potential formation of an independent commission and we would like to hear your ideas on that. As for Mayor Micchiche's involvement, we would be happy to provide a link for him to participate. Please alert him that the meeting will be recorded.

Please respond to this email letting us know that you will agree to above scope and expectations for the meeting on February 12 at 1:30 PM.

Ms. Mason and Ms. Dizon (email 2 of 2 - attachments 8 - 15),

Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor Peter Micciche would like to know if he may participate in the February 12 meeting via Zoom. If so, please let us know the meeting ID number and the passcode.

In addition, we are attaching a few items that alone demand a public investigation by an independent commission. Most the items have already been given to the Department of Law in the past: but Ms. Mills and Ms. Helzer may not have access to them. We respectfully ask they study the items carefully prior to our meeting.

Thank you again for taking the time to address our request that the Governor appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska - which is a very great danger to the public's welfare and safety.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

RE: Request for Governor to appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska.

Ms. Mason and Ms. Dizon,

Yes, my team and I agree to an in-person meeting with Alaska Deputy Attorney General Cori Mills and Anne Helzer in Anchorage on February 12. As soon as possible, please let us know the time and place so we may make travel arrangements. We believe the meeting will take more than one hour due to the seriousness and uniqueness of the Governor appointing an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska.

From their last email it appears the Department of Law may have some confusion as to the purpose of this meeting. It is to address the issues in our November 24, 2024 letter to the Governor (attached). This letter is titled, "RE: Fixing Alaska's Judicial Corruption with an Independent Commission that Investigates in Public" In the Governor's email setting up our meeting with Ms. Mills and Ms. Helzer, the Governor confirmed the subject of this meeting: "Thank you again for the request to meet with the Governor and Attorney General to discuss fixing Alaska's judicial corruption with an appointed commission."

With our original letter we are also attaching an agenda and other documents that Ms. Mills and Ms. Helzer will want to study prior to our meeting. In addition, we respectfully ask that a copy of all these documents be positively given to the Governor himself, along with a copy of this entire email thread.

Thank you again for taking the time to address our request that the Governor appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska - which is a very great danger to the public's welfare and safety.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

Mr. Haeg,

Deputy Attorney General Mills will be in Anchorage on February 12, and she and Anne Helzer would be happy to meet with you then. In answer to your questions raised in your last email, we wanted to be clear about the expectations we have about this meeting. We understand you may have some ideas on how to improve the investigative grand jury process. This is something we have been looking into as well, and we are glad to hear your ideas and ask questions to better understand your proposal. We will set aside an hour for this discussion. Following the meeting, your ideas and proposals will be shared with the Attorney General as he continues to consider options--within the parameters of the current rules set down by the Alaska Supreme Court. We hope this helps clarify expectations. Please let us know if you would like to move forward with scheduling a meeting in person in Anchorage for February 12th.

Ms. Mason and Ms.Dizon,

As the proposed meeting dates of January 28 or 29 are rapidly approaching, and you have yet to confirm which date and time works best for Deputy Attorney General Mills and Chief Assistant Attorney General Helzer (see email thread below), we are purchasing airline tickets to arrive in Juneau, Alaska on January 27.

Once again, thank you for taking the time to address our request that the Governor appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska - which is a very great danger to the public's welfare and safety.

I will back up this email with a phone call to both your offices to make sure it was received.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

Ms. Mason and Ms. Dizon,

Can you confirm a meeting date yet? (See below) Some folks have very busy schedules and need lead time. In addition, Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor Peter Micciche is interested in attending unless you have a problem with this.

Thank you again for taking the time to address our request that the Governor appoint an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska - which is a very great danger to the public's welfare and safety.

Ms. Dizon,

Thank you for the offered meeting dates regarding Governor Dunleavy appointing an independent commission to publicly investigate judicial corruption in Alaska. We are available either January 28 or 29 to meet with Deputy Attorney General Cori Mills and Chief Assistant Attorney General Anne Helzer.

Because of the great danger to the public welfare and safety, and the possibility of miscommunication during virtual meetings, Mr. Fritz and I plan on flying to Juneau so we may meet with Deputy Mills in person. Mat-Su Borough Mayor Edna DeVries and Ric Davidge plan on meeting with Chief AAG Helzer in person in Anchorage.

We are agreeing to this meeting based on the assumption that Governor Dunleavy is aware of our request and reasons for meeting with him (see attached and below); and has instead chosen good people (Deputy Mills and Chief AAG Helzer) to act on his behalf. Prior to the meeting, please let us know if our assumptions are in error.

We believe your proposed one-hour meeting cannot hope to cover everything necessary for appointment of a commission capable of addressing what appears to be decades of systemic judicial corruption, involving numerous powerful officials (see attached and below). We think this meeting requires at least a full day, but, since we need to start somewhere, are happy with whatever time you are willing to provide.

One last issue: we believe it is important to Alaska's living citizens, and "millions yet unborn", that this meeting be recorded and provided to the general public. This unusual necessity is proven in how we would undoubtedly be meeting with Deputy Attorney General John Skidmore (who recordings alone indicate is thoroughly corrupt - see below) instead of Deputy Attorney General Cori Mills. Please let us know if you have an issue with this meeting being recorded and provided to the general public.

Most Sincerely,

David Haeg, on behalf of concerned Alaskan citizens.

Dear Mr. Haeg,

Following up on the below email from the Governor's scheduler, I am reaching out to hopefully schedule a meeting with you, Deputy Attorney General Cori Mills, and Chief Assistant Attorney General Anne Helzer. I can offer the following dates, please let me know if any of the below works for you:

Thursday, January 9 – 2:30 to 3:30

Friday, January 10 – 1:00 to 2:00

If none of these dates work, I can look at the week of January 27 for the meeting.

Also, Deputy Mills is located in Juneau and will be participating virtually and Chief AAG Helzer is located in Anchorage and can meet in person. If you prefer videoconference, we can schedule a Zoom meeting.

Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you.

RE: Meeting with Governor Dunleavy and AG Taylor, for citizens to request an independent "Mollen" type commission be appointed to publicly investigate judicial corruption.

Ms. Mason,

Thank you for responding to our request.

I, and others, believe Deputy Attorney General John Skidmore is implicated in the same judicial corruption and cover-up we are trying to solve:

1. In 2018, a grand juror claimed that Mr. Skidmore unconstitutionally and illegally stopped the grand jury from investigating evidence of judicial corruption and cover-up. This included, but was not limited to: evidence that District Attorneys are falsifying evidence to frame citizens; evidence that the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct is falsifying official investigations to keep corrupt judges on the bench; evidence that the Office of Children's Services is violating law to take children from parents; and evidence that everything is being covered up by government officials.
2. Senator Peter Micciche (now Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor) and Speaker of the House Mike Chenault investigated the grand juror's claims, driving from Kenai to Anchorage to question Mr. Skidmore in the presence of the grand juror. Mr. Skidmore claimed he could stop the grand jury investigation because "no one claimed there was systemic corruption." The grand juror protested, claiming that Mr. Skidmore had been positively told it was "systemic corruption." Senator Micciche and Speaker Chenault appeared to accept Mr. Skidmore's explanation. Long after, however, the grand juror succeeded in obtaining the court recording of when Mr. Skidmore successfully stopped the grand jury from investigating. The recording captures Mr. Skidmore outright being told "by definition, this is systemic corruption."

To many of us it appears that Mr. Skidmore unconstitutionally but successfully stopped the grand jury from investigating judicial corruption, and then testified falsely to legislators to cover up what he had done. Article 1, Section 8 of Alaska's Constitution: "The power of Grand Juries to investigate and make recommendations concerning the public welfare or safety shall never be suspended." (no mention that investigations must concern "systemic corruption.")

3. In 2022 a grand jury foreman claimed that Mr. Skidmore stopped his grand jury from investigating the same judicial corruption. When he brought up the grand jury's constitutional right to investigate, the foreman claimed he was told the Alaska Constitution, "didn't matter."

4. In 2023, in response to a proposed Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly Resolution seeking to bolster citizen rights to appeal to the grand jury, Mr. Skidmore and Alaska Court System General Counsel Nancy Meade testified to the KPBA that citizens do not have a right to appeal to the grand jury. Yet page 1328 of Alaska's Constitutional Convention records the 55 delegates stating: "The grand jury can be appealed to directly, which is an invaluable right to the citizen." The 55 delegates who wrote Alaska's constitution also said: "The power of grand juries to inquire into the willful misconduct in office of public officers, and to find indictments in connection therewith, shall never be suspended." Alaska Constitutional Convention, December 15, 1955. "The grand jury is preserved, for all purposes, particularly for investigation of public officials." Alaska Constitutional Convention Commentary on the Preamble and the Declaration of Rights.

Conclusion

Ms. Mason, in light of the above, compounded by the corruption and cover-up documented in our original request for a meeting with the Governor and Attorney General (attached), what do you think we should do?

We don't want to seem ungrateful for the opportunity to speak with Deputy Attorney General Skidmore. But since he already falsified testimony to legislators to apparently cover up that he is part of the problem, we believe he will do whatever it takes to prevent an independent "Mollen" type commission from publicly investigating the very corruption and cover-up he is implicated in. He now has a history of sabotaging meetings he is party to, and we believe he will sabotage the below proposed meeting.

The very reason we asked for a meeting specifically with Governor Dunleavy and Attorney General Taylor is because Deputy Attorney General John Skidmore, a very powerful government official, is directly implicated.

Unless you have a better idea, can you positively inform Governor Dunleavy and Attorney General Taylor of our concerns and that we would prefer a meeting with them, and then let us know what the Governor and AG think? One of our fears is that our requests get side-lined by someone like Mr. Skidmore, and the Governor and/or Attorney General never know what our concerns and requests are. In fact, did the Governor and Attorney General personally see our request and reasons for a meeting and was it they that suggested we meet with Mr. Skidmore? A growing number of folks think we may have to visit Juneau to make sure the proper people are receiving our concerns, but maybe this isn't the proper way to proceed?

Merry Christmas and thank you again for the response!

New York City's 1994 Mollen Commission (Appointed by Mayor Dinkins to Investigate in Public) To cover up their corruption, officers created even more: they falsified official reports and perjured themselves to conceal their misdeeds. In the face of this problem, the Department allowed its systems for fighting corruption virtually to collapse. It had become more concerned about the bad publicity that corruption disclosures generate than the devastating consequences of corruption itself. As a result, its corruption controls minimized, ignored and at times concealed corruption rather than rooting it out. Such an institutional reluctance to uncover corruption is not surprising. No institution wants its reputation tainted – especially a Department that needs the public's confidence and partnership to be effective. Since no entity outside the Department was responsible for reviewing the Department's success in policing itself, years of self-protection continued unabated until this Commission commenced its independent inquiries.
