Meeting Goals, Scope and Expectations

Representatives from the Attorney General's office have agreed to meet with Mr. David Haeg for the narrow purpose of considering Mr. Haeg's ideas on an improved process for citizen-initiated requests for an investigative grand jury in Alaska.

The Department of Law may also consider Mr. Haeg's suggestions regarding the formation of an independent commission appointed to oversee, or play some other role, in citizen-initiated grand jury investigations. The meeting may also include Mr. Haeg's thoughts on the what the prospective duties, responsibilities, and authority of an independent commission might look like.

The parties agree that the Department of Law will not consider discussion of any persons, circumstances, situations or evidence presented by Mr. Haeg in support of any past or present claim of systemic corruption or "judicial corruption" at this meeting.

1. Introduction of Parties Present, Agreement re: Goals and Expectations (1:30 PM-1:40 PM)
2. Presentation from David Haeg (1:40 PM-2:40PM)
3. Other Questions and Comments (2:40PM-2:50PM)
4. Adjournment
